ABOUT ME

I have been writing unprofessionally for 15 years. I love writing and it is my passion. I want to make a career out of it and am willing to learn whatever I need to for this.

I worked various positions there. I stuffed bags with parts and and sealed them. I loaded tables with parts for other people to work on. I wrapped skids and moved them to the dock as well as unloaded skids.

I have worked with kids in that classroom setting, helping them to learn their verses and teach them their lessons. I currently work in the office on Wednesdays, making sure that everyone has everything that they need and knows where they need to go.
